SIRIUS & ODYSSEY

SIRIUS

Sirius desking is an affordable solution to your office requirements. With an extensive choice of seventeen board colours and four trim finishes there is a combination to refresh any office environment.

Sirius has a range of desking shapes, ranging from standard rectangular desks to combination radial workstations. Sirius is complemented by a full range of storage, which is available from the Universal Storage range..

Rectangular combination desks with an integrated 3 drawer pedestal further enhance the range by providing a more cost effective solution without losing aesthetic appeal.

A selection of desktop screens are available to add privacy and colour to your work area. Available with Black, White or Silver trim, a choice of acrylic or fabric and single or triple toolrail, the Divide range adds even more flexibility to your office colour scheme.

The classic radial workstation is frequently used to create a compact yet individual working space. Storage can be added to the return of your desk providing extra work space.

Sirius is available in a selection of four trim colours. Black, White, Silver and Grey to perfectly complement your desktop finish.

Sirius is a high quality, cost effective solution to your desking requirements. Incorporating a cantilever leg design with optional cable management, Sirius also offers a complete selection of standard desk shapes and sizes.

ODYSSEY

As an alternative option from our Sirius range we have Odyssey. A simple and timeless panel end design to uplift any working environment.

Colours Storage complements the Odyssey range by offering a two tone storage option. Mix and match between 17 MFC finishes to create your desired storage solution.
